

ICACSDF 2026 International Conference on Advances in Cyber Security and Digital Forensics

11–12 September 2026 | UPES Dehradun, India

SPECIAL SESSION ON Robust and Edge-Intelligent AI for Wearable Biomedical Signal Analytics and Cyber Security in Digital Health

OVERVIEW

This special session focuses on developing robust, explainable, and secure AI-driven systems for data-intensive and real-time applications. It brings together researchers at the intersection of AI, IoT, and secure intelligent systems, with emphasis on trustworthy and privacy-aware solutions for wearable biomedical and digital health environments.

TOPICS OF INTEREST (BUT NOT LIMITED TO)

- AI/ML for secure and intelligent systems
- Human Activity Recognition and sensor-based applications
- Signal processing for time-series and sensor data
- Robust and noise-resilient machine learning models
- Explainable AI (XAI) and trustworthy AI systems
- Privacy-preserving AI and federated learning
- Edge AI and secure deployment on resource-constrained devices
- Multimodal data fusion in intelligent systems
- IoT-enabled systems and cyber-physical security
- Real-time monitoring and anomaly detection
- Secure data analytics and decision-making systems
- AI applications in healthcare, smart environments, and security domains

IMPORTANT DATES

Submission Deadline
15 July 2026

Notification of Acceptance
10 August 2026

Camera Ready Submission
25 August 2026

Conference Dates
11–12 September 2026
